

OPPORTUNITIES FOR INTEGRATING ICT WALLACE AND BRUCE

Level C

ICT STRANDS		SPECIFIC SKILLS	CURRICULAR LINKS
Creating and Presenting	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Create and edit a piece of text using increasingly extended text handling features Create a document with text and graphics using more sophisticated software Create a simple multimedia presentation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Continued use of cut, copy and paste. Edit using change of size, font, style and colour. Introduced justify, centre, page break and undo. Copy and paste graphic or digital images into a work processing, drawing or painting package. Change the size of the graphic by clicking and dragging. Create a simple presentation of slide show incorporating graphics, text and background colours. 	Functional writing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> write in an appropriate form and with adequate vocabulary to communicate key events, facts and ideas. Imaginative writing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> write a brief, imaginative story, poem or play, using appropriate organisation and vocabulary.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Access CD ROMs independently Use a web browser independently Print selectively 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Access information from a CD ROM encyclopaedia independently Use links supplied within a website to search for information in related sites Use the toolbar or menu to navigate within a website Print information found Compare information found on a website with the task set 	Reading for information <ul style="list-style-type: none"> find and use information specific to their needs from a range of informational and reference sources.
Story: write and edit a short piece of creative writing from notes or a story plan. Report: locate biographical information about Wallace and Bruce to create a simple report using text and graphics. Newspaper report: use research information to write a newspaper article about the Battle of Bannockburn, Bruce's coronation... Fact sheet: create a fact sheet to illustrate distinctive features of life at that time. Virtual tour: take a 'virtual tour' of Stirling Castle in preparation for a visit (Historic Scotland website) Research: use textbooks, CD ROMS and the internet <ul style="list-style-type: none"> As a source of information about all aspects of the lives of Wallace and Bruce Declaration of Arbroath and Battle of Bannockburn Artefacts of that period 			    <h2>Robert the Bruce</h2> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1274 - Born at Turnberry Castle in Ayrshire 1295 - Became Earl of Carrick 1306 - Crowned King of Scots 1329 - Died of leprosy
RESOURCES:	SOFTWARE Granada Writer Microsoft Word Encarta	CD ROMS Scottish History CD ROM	WEBSITES <ul style="list-style-type: none"> www.bbc.co.uk/history/scottishhistory/independence/index.shtml www.royal.gov.uk/output/page71.asp www.historic-scotland.gov.uk/wallaceandbrucetacher.pdf www.historic-scotland.gov.uk/stirling_update_tour_2000.pdf